

March 23 – 24, 2010 • Washington Convention Center • Washington, D.C.

Exhibiting is Much more than Booth Space

At GovSec/U.S. Law, your company gets much more than the space you contracted for. As an exhibitor, you also get at no additional charge...

- A Listing on www.govsecinfo.com and in the Show Directory including:

Company Name

Address

Phone

Fax

Email

URL

Company Profile (75 Words)

Product Categories (Unlimited)

If Applicable:

GSA Contract #

New Products/Services

Pavilion Designation

Twitter Address

Veteran Ownership

- Use of Exhibitor Invites™, which you can use to send out nicely designed, customized invitations to their customers and prospects up to three times through a third-party bonded email distribution service.
- The 2009 Attendee Registration list and the 2010 Pre-Registration list for Pre-Show Direct Mail (List Usage Rules Apply)
- Pre-registered press list to promote their participation and products
- Distribution of press kits in the Media Center at GovSec/U.S. Law and access to private rooms for one-to-one press meetings (limited availability)
- Unlimited exhibitor badges for your staff and Conference registration at the low government attendee price
- Attendance at Keynotes, Briefings on key topics of facing civilian and military homeland security professional and leaders from law enforcement
- Red, white and blue drape and an ID sign with your name and booth number