

March 30 – 31, 2011 - Washington Convention Center - Washington, D.C.

Exhibiting is Much More Booth Space

At GovSec/U.S. Law, your company gets much more than the space you contracted for. As an exhibitor, you also get at no additional charge...

- A Listing on www.govsecinfo.com and in the Show Directory including:

Company Name	If Applicable:
Address
Phone	GSA Contract #
Email	New Products/Services
URL	Pavilion Designation
Company Profile (75 Words)	Twitter Address
Product Categories (Unlimited)	Veteran Ownership

- Use of Exhibitor Invites™, which you can use to send out nicely designed, customized invitations to your customers and prospects up to three times through a third-party bonded email distribution service.
- The 2011 Pre-Registration list for Pre-Show Direct Mail (List Usage Rules Apply)
- Pre-registered press list to promote your participation and products
- Distribution of press kits in the Media Center at GovSec/U.S. Law
- Unlimited exhibitor badges for your staff and Conference registration at the low government attendee price
- Attendance at Keynotes, Briefings on key topics of facing civilian and military homeland security professional and leaders from law enforcement
- Red, white and blue drape and an 7" x 44" ID sign with your name and booth number